

European hydrogen train the trainer programme for responders

- Aimed to develop a sustainable training programme for responders
- 16 Partners including industry, academia, and fire schools (2020 – 2023)
- National training clusters in 10 countries
- Training materials freely available in 8 languages (e-Platform)
- Unique operational facility available for training at ENSOSP
- Plans to extend reach to over 22,000 responders by 2028
- JU initiative >> National activities >> Recognised globally
- Materials can be utilised by valleys, municipalities, and regions

