vi. informed, by any means, that it is subject to an investigation by the European Anti-Fraud office (OLAF): either because it has been given the opportunity to comment on facts concerning it by OLAF, or it has been subject to on-the-spot checks by OLAF in the course of an investigation, or it has been notified of the opening, the closure or of any circumstance related to an investigation of the OLAF concerning it.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMEDIAL MEASURES

If the person declares one of the situations of exclusion listed above, it may indicate remedial measures it has taken to remedy the exclusion situation, in order to allow the authorising officer to determine whether such measures are sufficient to demonstrate its reliability. This may include e.g. technical, organisational and personnel measures to prevent further occurrence, compensation of damage or payment of fines or of any taxes or social security contributions.

Without prejudice to the assessment of the authorising officer responsible, the person or entity shall submit remedial measures that have been assessed by an external independent auditor or have been considered sufficient by a decision of a national or Union authority. The relevant documentary evidence, which illustrates the remedial measures taken and their assessment, must be provided in annex to this declaration. Remedial measures do not apply for situations referred in point (1) (d) of this declaration.

¹ The declaration under this point (2) is voluntary and it cannot have adverse legal effect on the economic operator until the conditions of Article 143(1) (a) FR are met.

In case of a procedure with lots the statements in this part B apply to the lot(s) for which the tender is submitted.

The person must immediately inform the contracting authority of any changes in the situations as declared.

The person may be subject to rejection from this procedure and to administrative sanctions (exclusion or financial penalty) if any of the declarations or information provided as a condition for participating in this procedure prove to be false.
